To
His Excellency the Ambassador of Japan
Embassy of Japan in the Republic of Kazakhstan
Astana, Kazakhstan

Subject: Letter of Invitation and Visa Support - Mr. Yerlik Karazhan

Your Excellency,

On behalf of the Observer Research Foundation (ORF), we are pleased to formally invite Mr. Yerlik Karazhan, Chief Executive Officer of the Central Asia Climate Foundation (Passport no. N18308567) to participate in the second meeting of the High-Level Empowered Board on Green Transition on 18 November 2026, convened alongside the Raisina Tokyo Dialogue, scheduled for 18-19 November 2026 in Tokyo, Japan. The Dialogue is being jointly organised by ORF and the Japan Bank for International Cooperation (JBIC).

The High-Level Empowered Board on Green Transition is a global initiative convened by ORF, bringing together distinguished policymakers, economists, industry leaders and experts to advance international cooperation on climate finance, clean energy technologies and sustainable economic development. Mr. Karazhan is a member of the Board and has been invited to participate in its second meeting in Tokyo, where members will deliberate on priorities for accelerating an inclusive and sustainable global green transition.

Mr. Karazhan will also participate in the Raisina Tokyo Dialogue, which will convene senior policymakers, business leaders, academics and experts from Japan and around the world to exchange perspectives on pressing geopolitical, economic and strategic issues.

The organisers will provide Mr. Karazhan with round-trip international airfare, accommodation for the duration of the conference, airport transfers, and hospitality associated with the official programme

The purpose of Mr. Karazhan's visit is strictly professional and limited to his participation in the aforementioned meetings and related engagements.

This letter is issued in support of Mr. Karazhan's visa application and serves as supplementary documentation to the Letter of Invitation and Letter of Guarantee issued by the Japan Bank for International Cooperation, the Japanese co-host of the Raisina Tokyo Dialogue.

We would be grateful for the Embassy's favourable consideration of his visa application to facilitate his participation in these meetings. Should any additional information or supporting documentation be required, we would be pleased to provide the same.

Yours sincerely,

Samir Saran
President
Observer Research Foundation
